STATE.

Former Gov. McCreary and Dunlay, of Lexington, held a joint debate at Williamstown.

At Junction City a few days since, Louis Fisher, colored, shot and killed Letcher Walker, another negro.

The Democratic poll of the State thus far shows a majority for the party, according to estimate of 26,000.

At a dance, in the Court house at Beattyville, Della Hargis cut the throat of Rosa Scrivner because she danced with her husband.

The Christian county grand jury declined to find an indictment against J. Dudley Ware for shooting Dr. W. K. Piner on June 19.

Berry Howard a fugitive from justice, headed a Republican parade at Pineville, Monday. He was the most conspicuous figure in parade.

The largest crown, said to be, since Goebel and Bryan's visit, heard Hon. J. C. Cantrill and R. Frank Peak at Richmond Monday.

Gov. Beckham has put another pointed and embarrassing question to Mr. Yerkes. Mr. Beckham wants to know whether, if elected, Mr. Yerkes would issue a requisition for the return of fugitives Taylor and Finley.

Near Beattyville, Ky., Walter Evans cut his wife's throat with a razor and then committed suicide with the same weapon. Evans had only been married about a year. His wife was a beautiful young woman of nineteen years.

A desperate fight occurred near McWhorter, ten miles from London, between Frank Brown and Pleasant Vaughn on the one side and Henry Willhite on the other. Vaughn was shot through the thigh and abdomen and will die. Willhite is missing, and it is thought he was probably killed, as his hat and other articles were found on the ground.

In the State Senate Tuesday afternoon Senator Alexander, of Louisville, sprung a surprise by bringing up the House Election Bill for consideration and offering amendments satisfactory to the House Democrats. When the Senate adjourned, after expressing its attitude in the passage of the Senate Bill, the situation was that the House Bill as amended would probably be passed tomorrow and by the House a day or two later.

The case of Henry E. Youtsey, charged with complicity in the murder of Gov. Goebel, was called at Georgetown but continued until Wednesday on motion of the defense. It is said that Arthur Goebel will go on the witness stand and relate to the jury a confession made to him by Youtsey. The prisoner is said to have told Mr. Goebel some of the things that happened in the private office of the Secretary of State just before and at the time of shooting, and to have told him who fired the fatal shot. The man said to have been named by Youtsey as the murderer was J. H. Howard, now under sentence of death.

ORLANDO.

Born to the wife of Jim Fishes a fine girl.

Mr. Adam Rader of Welchburg Jackson county has been visiting his brother George Rader of this neighborhood for a few days.

Mr. Frank McNew and family who has been living in the west for the past year returned the other day to old Rockcastle where they expect to live the remainder of their lives.

Mr. James Anderson and wife have separated and he has gone we don't know where but we do not see him in this part of the county any more.

Dr. M. Pennington was over at our place a few days since.

Rev. Williams is holding a series of meetings at Flat Rock this week.

Conley Jennings of Garrard county has been spending a few days with friends in this neighborhood. He is a good man and we are always glad to see him.

Garfield Clark a son of W. P. Clark has returned home after a few weeks visit to the Indian Territory.

Mr. Berry of Clear creek was visiting at G. T. Johnsons Saturday and Sunday.

Lee Porters brother of Bengie Ky. and his cousin Mr. Bryant of Laurel county were over to see Lee and his sister Mrs. Evans a few days since.

Taylor Mullins Jr. is very sick with the typhoid fever.

The funeral of Robert Ponder was largely attended by people from all parts of the county and quite a number from adjoining counties.

Mr. B. J. Ball is preparing to build him a dwelling house in our little town and we hope the will keep building for the more houses we have the better it will make our people.

Mr. R. L. Porter was over at Mt. Vernon again Saturday night and Sunday now I don't know but I am of the opinion that something is going to happen very soon. Lee don't seem like the same boy any more, instead of wearing that same old expression which is so familiar to every one he now wears a smile from morning till night as though he had never seen one moment of trouble, and one other thing the most important of all that arouses my suspicion so much is that, he has made some inquiries about an empty house in our town, and has ordered a lot of coal to be delivered at this place for his winter use. So it is pretty sure that he is going to do one of two things, either get married or batch. He has my best wishes.

ORDER OF COURT.

CALL TERM ROCKCASTLE COUNTY COURT, SEPT. 21, 1900.

Whereas, twenty per cent of the legal voters of Rockcastle county hath made application, by written petition to me, Judge of the Rockcastle County Court, to order an election to be held on the 6th day of November 1900, at the various voting places in said county, for the purpose of taking the sense of the voters of said county as to whether or not, they desire an appropriation of thirty thousand dollars ($30,000) to be secured by selling Bonds of the county, to be payable at the option of the county at any time within twenty-five years from date of their issue, and to bear a rate of interest not greater than four per cent. per annum from date until paid, and not to be sold at a price less than their par value, for the purpose of raising money to build and maintain turn pikes and gravel roads in Rockcastle county. Said bonds to be paid, as well as their interest, by means of levying a tax of not to exceed 15 cents on each hundred dollars worth of taxable property in said county, each year until the same are paid.

Said election is now ordered to be held at the next regular election, which is on the 6th day of November 1900.

The Sheriff of this county is hereby ordered and directed to open a poll at each and all the voting places of the county aforesaid, for the purpose of taking the sense of the voters on said question. The Sheriff of said county will cause to be published in The Kentucky Colonist and THE MT. VERNON SIGNAL, two weekly newspapers, published and having general circulation in said county, a copy of this order for at least four weeks prior to the day of said election.

Given under my hand this the 21, day of September 1900.

R. G. WILLIAMS, Judge Rockcastle County Court. A copy attest.

M. C. MILLER, Clerk. By J. J. Cook, Deputy Clerk.

CAME NEAR DYING.

"For three days and nights I suffered agony untold from an attack of cholera morbus brought on by eating cucumbers," says M. E. Lowther, clerk of the district court, Centerville, Iowa. "I thought I should surely die, and tried a dozen different medicines but all to no purpose. I sent for a bottle of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy and three doses relieved me entirely. I went to sleep and did not awake for eight hours. On awakening a few hours ago I felt so gratified that the first work I do on going to the office is to write to the manufacturers of this remedy and offer them my grateful thanks and say, 'God bless you and the the splendid medicine you make.' This remedy is for sale by Theo Wesley Druggist.

DEMOCRATIC TICKET.

For President,

W. J. BRYAN,
of Nebraska.

For Vice-President,

ADLAI STEVENSON,
of Illinois.

For Congress,

HON. G. G. GILBERT,
of Shelby.

For Governor,

Gov. J. C. W. Beckham, of Nelson.

HON. John W. Yerkes spoke here last Saturday to a crowd of men women and children, variously estimated at from 500 to 700. It was the coolest reception ever given a man—a candidate for Governor—in this county.

Mr. Yerkes arrived on the noon train and was entertained for dinner by Dr. John Williams, the Republican nominee for Congress. At 1 o'clock James T. Adams, in a few well chosen words, introduced Mr. Yerkes to the crowd in the Court House yard. The speaker at once mounted his hobby—the Goebel election law—and said that Mr. Beckham now stood in favor of it, when the facts are that Mr. Beckham, in the month of August, called a special session of the Legislature for the specific purpose of amending that law, which shows that Mr. Beckham does not fully endorse the Goebel election law. Mr. Beckham is even now urging the Legislators to pass an absolutely fair and just election law.

The cry for "Civil Liberty" by Mr. Yerkes fell with a dull thud, because if there has been any party that opposed "Civil Liberty" in Kentucky, it has been the Republican party. The chasing of the Legislature at the point of the bayonet, through the streets of Frankfort; the unlawful adjourning of the Legislature; Taylor defying the officers of the law—even going so far as to have them incarcerated; his defying the writ of habeas corpus, creating terror, lawlessness and violence in the City of Frankfort, aided and abetted by his Republican friends and cohorts, show conclusively that their cry of "Civil Liberty" is false pretense.

The weakest part of Mr. Yerkes speech was when he referred to the ineige and rich blood of Mr. Beckham, saying that he himself came as a plain man without any rich blood, when ever man in Kentucky knows that if there was ever a man raised with a silver spoon—in his mouth; that lives in the lap of luxury and affluence that man is John W. Yerkes. No man prides himself more on his personal appearance and his spotless linen than does the gentleman from Danville. We do not understand how as honest a man as he claims to be can uphold, endorse and favor the lawlessness that was practiced at Frankfort last winter. How can he approve the acts of W. S. Taylor a man whom all men know is now a fugitive from justice, when he himself said he never would be. It was an act of a guilty man, lashed by his own conscience, fleeing from the scene of a crime which he had others to commit.

The platform on which Mr. Yerkes stands endorses Mr. Taylor and endorses the actions of Caleb Powers. Powers has been convicted by twelve good, honest, sober men, even members of the church, who under the solemnity of an oath, promised to do justice between the Commonwealth and the defendant, found him guilty and fixed his punishment at life imprisonment. Mr. Yerkes is compelled from necessity to grant a pardon to these men. If he is elected Governor he can not do otherwise, because he virtually pledges himself in their platform. If he endorses their acts, won't he pardon them for the acts which he endorses? If these men are turned loose, after being convicted by a non-partisan jury, will it not lead to even a worse state of affairs than now exists? Will it not create violence and blood shed throughout the State? Will it not be the very worst thing for the Commonwealth? Then, if it will be, why vote for him? The election of Mr. Yerkes means a complete indorsement of the actions of Taylor, Powers, Finley and others who were the originators and promoters of the mountain mobs taken to Frankfort last winter. It would mean the endorsement of a mob taking our Capitol city; firing off their pistols at random, and putting men, women and children in fear of their lives. It would mean the endorsement of shooting out car windows; shooting down car doors and tearing up car benches, and endangering the lives of every one on the inside; it will mean that you are opposed to the law; to the mandates of the Court; it will mean that you can defy your sheriff; put your officers to flight, and that you care nothing for law or order. If this is the result, we had as well tear down our school houses and churches, hurl the Judges headlong from their benches; tear their Judicial ermines from them; burn our Constitution and our Statute laws, put the Angel of Justice to flight, and we will return to that time when Kentucky was known as the "Dark and Bloody Ground."

HANNA, in his desperation, is calling upon the postmasters to help him to the small sum of one million. One fellow out in Nebraska, didn't like the idea of being assessed to help defray the expenses of the campaign, so he gave the old boodler away. Mark ought to know that everybody in that State is for Bryan, and they are only too glad to give away his schemes. We are of the opinion that if he would get off the stump, and take Roosey off, McKinley would probably carry Maine, Vermont and a few other Northern States, but if they go on at the present rate Bryan will carry everything except the Eleventh Congressional district of this State. The people will no longer tamely submit to Mark Hanna's rule, and will completely dethrone him in November.

THE Republicans are always, harping about the money appropriated for the blood-thirsty assassins—the ghouls in human form—to justice, for the murder of the greatest friend of the common people, Kentucky ever knew, when they know that it would do no one any good to convict the innocent. It is the guilty and not the innocent that the people want convicted, and part of whom will be convicted. But not all the guilty will be punished, for their names are legion, and they are scattered all the way from the Seven Pines to the Mississippi. If all who were interested directly, and indirectly in the death of Gov. Goebel were brought to justice, Kentucky's supply of hemp would run short, and several penitentiaries would have to be built.

MR. GILBERT thinks he will reduce the Republican majority in this county considerably this fall, and no doubt it is true, for we know of several Republicans who will vote for him. He is a man whom the people of this district are justly proud, and we will show him our appreciation by sending him back to Congress by about 1,500 majority. He is a statesman, any district would appreciate, and not be ashamed for him to open his mouth at any and all times. All who want such a man as this for Congress, let it be known the sixth day of November by casting your votes for Mr. Gilbert.

HANNA is using almost every conceivable power, known among men, to get the Pennsylvania strikers to go to work; for he says if they don't, McKinley is certain to be beaten. Now wouldn't those mineis up there shed great crocodile tears if Hanna shouldn't be president for the next four years?

The Republicans in the Senate Tuesday were given a chance to vote upon a proposition to repeal the Goebel law and return to the old County Judge system. Ten Republicans voted against the proposition, defeating it.

THE voters of this county should bear in mind that the Republicans unlawfully used and misappropriated $30,097.64 of the people's money during their short term of office.

JUDGE Cantrill overruled the motion for a new trial in the Jim Howard case, connected with the killing of Goebel and sentenced him to be hanged on December 7th

Good Roads.

Nothing would be more beneficial to our county than to have pikes and gravel roads. I am very much for the bond issue and shall vote for it. Three more in our family are for it. Let the good work go on. We should all be for the general improvement of our county. H. Blazer.

I have talked with a great many citizens about the road question and I find the best business men for it: the far-sighted, thinking men are for it, and the most surprising thing to the onlooker is the men who pay the most tax are for it. I believe it will carry and that it should. M. Pennington, M.D.

I am for it. If it goes toward Madison county I am willing to donate something besides paying my taxes. Geo. Ketron.

The best thing that could be done for the entire county. I am for it and shall vote and work for it. Jonas McKenzie.

Col. R. M. Jackson, cashier of the First National Bank at London, says that W. L. Richards, our new cashier, is the very man for the place; that the bank will succeed and pay well.

Mrs. W. T. Short, accompanied by her son Ed, went to Gilberts Creek Monday night, to attend the burial of her nephew, Hiram M. Powell, who shot and almost instantly killed himself late Monday afternoon.

J. N. Chapman of London, and Zack Dickson, of our own county, are plastering Houk and Son's new store this week. From the progress which the plasterers and carpenters are making, it looks very much like it will soon be ready for use.

OPENING! OPENING!

I will have my Fall and Winter opening on Saturday, October 13. Be sure and give me a call. I want to see all my old friends and as many new ones as will come.

MRS. CLEO BROWN.

A Democratic Club was organized at Conway, Saturday night, with Jesse Dykes as president; G. W. Jones, first vice president; Matt Coffey, second vice president; Frank Kennedy, secretary, and James Morgan, assistant secretary.

Hon. James D. Black passed through on Sunday's train en route to Munfordsville where he spoke Monday. Let every one remember that he will be here tomorrow and at Livingston tomorrow night. Every one come out and give him a good hearing.

Jesse Tyree, son of N. H. Tyree, who let a pistol discharge a few days since, striking him in the abdomen, died Wednesday afternoon. The remains were brought here from Livingston that night, and taken to the Tyree burying ground for interment Thursday morning.

Charley Henderson was granted a patent last week on his new rolling pin. It is from first to last a very ingenious piece of work; and is a great improvement over the old fashion rolling pin. On the inside is a place for salt and soda, and in the end of each handle is a place for holding different kinds of extracts. It is but little larger, no heavier, and much more convenient than the old fashion pin, and we are confident that when it has a fair test, he will find a ready sale for it.

I will leave for Cincinnati, Sunday, to lay in my Fall and Winter stock of Millinery. Don't buy until you see my goods.

MRS. CLEO BROWN.

R. C. O. Benjamin, a negro lawyer and editor, was shot and killed by Michael Monahan Tuesday night as the result of a quarrel over registration at Lexington. Benjamin was attorney for "Tallow Dick" Combs, one of the men under indictment for the Goebel assassination.

At the weekly meeting of the Christian Endeavor Society on Wednesday evening, the annual election of officers took place. Mrs. A. E. Ewers was elected president; Miss Mitchell, vice-president; Miss Margaret McClary secretary; Miss Gladden Ewers, assistant secretary; Miss Cox, corresponding secretary; Mr. Fred Krueger, treasurer.

The officers and members extend a hearty invitation to the young people of the town to be present at the weekly meetings of the Young People's C. E. Society, on Wednesday evenings at 7 o'clock.

W. H. Treadway, a substantial Republican of Clay county, while in London this week, said to attorney John W. Brown and Judge R. G. Williams that he was a neighbor of Jim Howard's, and that he was confident that Howard either killed Goebel or went to Frankfort for that purpose. That, because, of the course of the Republicans at Frankfort last winter, that he and eight other of his Republican neighbors will refuse to support Mr. Verkes. That he believed, W. S. Taylor, Charley Finley and Caleb Powers had Goebel killed.

The new bank, with W. L. Richards, as cashier has opened business and now in good running condition. People are coming from all parts of the county to make their deposits. It is perfectly safe. Every man who deposits his money is fully secured, and no one need have any fears, when he puts a dollar in it, but what he will get every cent of it back. The bank, which the people will soon realize themselves, will be of more help to the county, than most any thing, which we can conceive of. The bank which we already have and free-turnstile which we are going to get will be the salvation of this county. Let every man work for the success of both.

Hon. Letcher Owsley of Lancaster, who was invited by the club, at this place, to speak here last Friday night, was greeted by a large audience, not only of those belonging to the club here, but also members of the clubs, at Brodhead Livingston and Level Green. A large number of ladies also favored him with their presence. Mr. Owsley spoke for nearly two hours touching upon all the issues of the national campaign and dealing extensively with the state issues. He spoke of Trusts, showed how they are each day growing and the effect which they are having on our country. He dwelt extensively on imperialism, and the side tracking of Pres. McKinley. He then took up Taylorism and assassination in Kentucky and spoke very forcibly of the effect which it has had on our beloved state.

Saturday Morning a telegram was received stating that Miss Hattie Adams who was with her sister Mrs. Charles Simpson at Hartroft, Tenn. was dead and would be brought here for burial Monday. On Monday morning several men began digging the grave, and had it about completed when another message was received saying that she rallied and was still alive. But the improvement was only temporarily, for 7:05 p. m. Monday brought the hour when that noble spirit took its flight to a higher and better world. The remains were brought here, on the noon train Tuesday and immediately after arriving were laid to rest in the Collyer burying ground, near the Presbyterian church. Charley Simpson, her brother-in-law, Dudley Adams, her youngest brother, and Mr. George Phipps, the young man to whom she was engaged to be married this month, accompanied the remains to this place.

Mrs. Annie Miller, of Washington, D. C. came Thursday night to spend a few days with relatives.

COLLEGE NOTES.

The pupils receiving the high est grade at the College for the month of September are as follows:

College Department.
Anna Thompson	96
Minerva Price	96
Intermediate Department.
McKenzie Brown	96
Fanny Sparks	96
Primary Department.
Ralph Forrester	93
Abel Pennington, Jr.	93

The music class is doing well and the number of pupils larger than ever before at this season of the year.

We are glad to announce that Miss Letcher is back to take her place at the head of the Greek and Latin department.

The Primary teacher is growing so in favor, that her room is adding more pupils every week.

Prof. Ewers has arranged his work so as to have some time to visit the schools of the county and thereby work up a greater interest in the College.

Good Roads.

Following is what some of the leading men have to say about the bond issue:

I am for the bond issue for good roads. J. Thos. Cherry.

Nearly every man in my section of the county is for the bond issue. Shall do all I can for it.

A. J. Pike.

The bond question should carry. Will benefit the country more than anything else. J. W. Tate.

Good roads will upbuild the county morally, intellectually and commercially. A. G. Lovell.

I have worked in season, day and night, for the success of the question. I want to see my county improve and my fellow countrymen prosper. Let every man go to work to carry this most important question.

James I. White.

Heartily in favor of bond issue for better roads. G. S. Hiatt.

Good roads run along with good schools and churches. For it. James W. Moore.

We can build good roads cheaper in this county than any in Kentucky. We have all the material which would cost nothing. Am very much for it. David Hysinger.

James I. White, John W. Marler, Green Fish, R. L. Brown, George Johnson, James Moore, W. H. Carmical, A. J. Sams, Albert Allen, Parkie Scott, Elisha Bullock, Thos. Cherry, Harry Blazer and a host of others deserve much praise for getting up and pushing such a beneficial thing along. By all means let it carry. S. H. Martin.

Good roads make good business, and we want both.

Gus Staverson.

For four years I was one of the directors of the Lexington pike, and I know what the advantages are to be derived from pikes. There fore I am heartily in favor of pikes. Jas. T. Adams.

It will invite immigration, create a demand for labor and farm products. Very much for it.

J. W. Marler.

Good roads will benefit every class of citizens in our county. I shall vote for the bond issue.

C. M. Cummins.

The man that has to go to town is the man that needs good roads.

S. B. Ramsey.

No man who wants to see the county get out of the old rut can be against the bonds.

J. L. Arnold.

Just the thing to do.

T. G. Keynolds.

Wish we had voted for bonds years ago. Good thing.

J. E. Houk.

Good roads would, help business of every kind. It would give employment to poor men, yet they would not pay one cent toward building the pikes, as there is no poll tax levied to pay the bonds. It would put life into our county. I am for it and shall cast my vote for it on the 6th day of November.

W. J. Sparks.

I am getting old and don't expect to live to enjoy the fruits of my vote, but on account of my children, my fellow-county-man, I shall vote for the bond issue. I believe it is the best thing for the county.

H. H. Baker.

I live in the extreme eastern portion of the county and could not be greatly benefited by the proposed pikes, personally, but the beginning of the building of good roads would soon advance all real property, and would be a start in the right direction and in time cover the county with good roads. I am heartily for the issuing of bonds for that purpose, and I will vote for it.

R. M. Johnson.

I am in favor of good roads. I think it would be a big help to Rockcastle county, and am in favor of issuing bonds to make pikes.

J. G. Frith.

S. D. Lewis, in speaking of turnpikes and the bond issue, says: "The advocates of that have just taken up my thunder of a year ago. Says he, I have been in several different states where they had free turnpikes and I have never found a place where a single free pike was ever built except by taxation."

IT HAPPENED IN A DRUG STORE.

"One day last winter a lady came to my drug store and asked for a brand of cough medicine that I did not have in stock," says Mr. C. R. Grandin, the popular druggist of Ontario, N. Y. "She was disappointed and wanted to know what cough preparation I could recommend. I said to her that I could freely recommend Chamberlain's Cough Remedy and that she could take a bottle of the remedy and after giving it a fair trial if she did not find it worth the money to bring back the bottle and I would refund the price paid. In the course of a day or two the lady came back in company with a friend in need of a cough medicine and advised her to buy a bottle of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. I consider that a very good recommendation for the remedy." The remedy owes its great popularity and extensive sale in a large measure to the personal recommendation of people who have been cured by its use. It is for sale by Theo Wesley Druggist.

ADAMS FISTULA SALVE manufactured by J. W. Adams & Co., Paint Lick, Ky., is meeting with ready sale everywhere.
